

EXHIBIT A1

Wells Fargo Unauthorized Account Settlement

You Are Eligible for a Payment from a $142 Million Settlement.

What is this About?

The Class Action Settlement includes customers who had Wells Fargo bank accounts opened without their permission, or were signed up for a Wells Fargo product they did not agree to, going back to May 1, 2002.

How to Get a Payment?

You are eligible to receive a payment from a Class Action Settlement with Wells Fargo about unauthorized accounts. You may automatically receive a payment because you already complained about an unauthorized account. To maximize your settlement recovery, you need to fill out the enclosed claim form and mail it back by Month XX, 2017. You may also submit a claim online at WFSettlement.com.

Your Other Options.

You can object to or exclude yourself from the Class Action Settlement by Month 00, 2017. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you cannot sue Wells Fargo for the claims being resolved by this Settlement. The Court will hold a hearing on Month 00, 2017, to consider whether to approve the Settlement. Attorneys representing the class will request attorneys' fees (up to 15%) and costs to be paid out of the settlement fund. You can appear at the hearing, but you don't have to.
